

TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 15

LOCAL NEWS.

For this section fair, warmer weather and northwesterly winds.

THE B. & O. SALE.—The New York Herald of yesterday said: "It is now an accomplished fact that the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad system has absorbed the Richmond Terminal properties, establishing the Southern connection, and the Reading and New Jersey Central properties will connect it with New York City. The road will be operated on a conservative basis, and it will appeal to the city of Baltimore and the state of Maryland to help it in making the road greater than the Pennsylvania. Congress will be petitioned to permit the erection of a bridge across the Potomac at Alexandria where the ferry is now operated. The surplus will be bonded. New bonds, at a low rate of interest, will be placed on the property in lieu of those now upon it, and arrangements will be made with the Pullman company for the 'sleeper' privilege, and the Adams Express will have the 'express' privilege. The telegraph will be taken out of the scheme, so far as the public business goes, and be made a separate corporation. The road will be put in thorough order."

When asked about the above this morning the officers of the Midland road said the idea of building a bridge across the Potomac at this city was ridiculous, as the ground would not permit of such a thing if the railroad company wanted it nor would Congress allow the river to be bridged.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and cold, with one prisoner and five lodgers at the station house.

The only case before the Mayor for trial this morning was that of Montgomery Devanagh, arrested by Officer McCann, charged with an assault on and threatening to shoot Mrs. Annie Lightfoot yesterday. He was dismissed on these charges, as the evidence showed that he had no intention of doing harm; but he was fined $5 for disorderly conduct and for carrying a pistol. Upon the decision of the Mayor Mrs. Lightfoot fainted and had to be carried from the room.

PERSONAL.—Judge C. E. Stuart, Speaker of the House of Delegates, left here for Richmond to-day to attend the extra session of the Legislature, which commences to-morrow.

Mr. H. H. Downing, of Front Royal, who represents Clarke and Warren counties in the Legislature, was in the city to-day on his way to Richmond. Mr. Downing, who is one of the most intelligent and popular members of the Legislature, thinks that there is a fair prospect of settling the debt question at the extra session.

AGAIN CONVICTED.—In the Spotsylvania county court last week Mary Waller and Jennie Boggs, the two colored women charged with a felonious assault, etc., upon W. S. E. Waller, were found guilty and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. Many grounds of error were assigned to set the verdict aside and grant a new trial, and arrest of judgment, all of which were overruled by the court, to which the prisoners, by counsel, excepted. The execution of the sentence was suspended for thirty days and the case will again be taken to the appellate courts.

PROFIT DESTROYED.—The keno paraphernalia and other gambling apparatus captured during Sunday's raid was consigned to the huge stove in the Corporation Court room this morning. Their destruction was witnessed by groups who appeared as if watching the passing away of familiar objects, or pondering the truth that "things we once have known soon vanish to be known no more forever." The outfit is said to have cost between $150 and $200.

PROPERTY SALE.—Mr. R. T. Lucas to-day sold for Messrs. Marbury and Armstrong, commissioners, the property situated at the western extremity of King street, known as the Virginia House, to James C. Walker for $1,500.

After the sale Mr. Watkins withdrew his offer saying he was bidding for some one else who had declined to take the property, so there was no sale.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge N. B. Meade presiding. Continuation of yesterday's proceedings. The will of John Payne, colored, was admitted to probate, and his daughter, Virginia Lancaster, qualified as executrix.

PASTORAL CALL.—Rev. Green Shackelford, of Baltimore, formerly assistant pastor of Ascension Episcopal Church, at Washington, has been called by the vestry of Trinity Episcopal Church, of Fredericksburg, to succeed Rev. Dr. Murdaugh, deceased. Rev. Mr. Shackelford was born in Fauquier county and is the son of the late Howard Shackelford, a leading lawyer of that county.

RESIGNATION.—Mr. K. Kemper, who was on Friday last appointed to a position under Gen. J. E. Johnston, U. S. Railroad Commissioner, to-day tendered to Mayor Snoot his resignation as Corporation Attorney of this city. The Mayor will communicate the matter to the City Council at its meeting on Tuesday night next. It is said there are several candidates for the position.

The weather last night was cold and the wind blew a gale from the northwest. The mercury dropped to 22 degrees and ice in considerable quantities formed on the river darts. The cold snap following so soon after the mild and genial weather of the previous day was felt the more severely.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Shad were caught with dipnets in the neighborhood of Chain bridge on Saturday. Samuel Bacon, one of the most widely-known citizens of Washington, died yesterday.

Water has been turned on the canal at Georgetown, and navigation at that end resumed.

Mr. Robert Porter yesterday purchased in Baltimore, for $1,000, a pair of handsome Percheron horses. The horses arrived here to-day and attracted much attention.

The Richmond papers again assert that the R. & D. offices will very soon be removed from Washington back to that city, but the officers of the road say to the contrary.

The tolling of the Friendship Fire Co's bell this morning during the funeral of the late Owen Nugent, caused an alarm of fire to be sounded which brought out the entire fire department.

The funeral of Mr. Owen Nugent took place from St. Mary's church this morning and was largely attended, the Catholic Beneficial Society turning out in regalia. A requiem mass was said by Father DeWolf.

The old pump, known as "Bryant's" pump, on Union street, between Gibson and Franklin, one of the oldest in the city, has been removed and the well filled in by Superintendent of Police Dobie. The water had been unfit for use for a long time past.

The change of schedule on the Virginia Midland Railroad, which took place Sunday, gives great satisfaction all along the line. It gives now three trains a day, and hastens the mails North and South several hours.

As the Aqueduct bridge will not be in condition for the Grand Army to cross on May 30 to decorate the graves at Arlington, Commander Burke will ask the Secretary of the Navy if it is possible to build a pontoon bridge directly across the river to Arlington for that purpose.

The United States fish commission steamer Albatross will leave the navy yard to-morrow for a trip of five or six days down the Chesapeake bay. Prof. Baird will be on board, and the trip, it is hoped, will greatly benefit his health, which for some time has been very poor.

Messrs. L. Stabler & Co., to-day commenced the manufacture of soda and mineral waters, ginger beer, &c., on an extensive scale. Their apparatus is complete and they expect to do a large business as they have received much encouragement from the trade.

Mr. H. Schwarz, of the firm of L. Eichberg & Co., has returned from New York, where he purchased a large and varied stock of goods, which he is offering to the public, as will be seen by their advertisement elsewhere.

"Woman and Her Diseases" is the title of an interesting illustrated treatise (100 pages) sent, post-paid, for 10 cents in stamps. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

LOST.—A negotiable note drawn by W. Smith, favor of A. D. Smith, at sixty days from February 25, 1887, for Seven Hundred and Ninety-seven dollars and Sixty-eight cents, payable at the Citizens' National Bank, of Alexandria, Va. All persons are warned not to negotiate said note. [J. C. MILBURN.]

Baltimore Conference M. E. Church South.

At yesterday's session of this conference in Leesburg Mr. T. J. Magruder presented the report of the joint board of finance, which showed that in the eight districts $1,024 had been contributed for the bishop's fund, $6,930 for superannuated fund, $1,205 for education and $155 for Bible fund. The total receipts were $9,300 67. The average contribution per member by districts was: Baltimore district, 46 cents; East Baltimore, 40 cents; Washington, 38 cents; Winchester, 25 cents; Rockingham, 19 cents; Roanoke, 17 cents; Lewisburg, 18 cents; and Moorfield, 14 cents. There was an improvement in contributions in all the districts.

Rev. Andrew W. Cockley presented the report of the committee on the Bible cause, which recommended that each pastor should see that each member had a Bible, the collections be taken in each charge for the cause. Rev. Richard Luby made an address on the subject. He said that in some portions of Virginia, he had been informed, there was but one Bible to ten families. He could hardly believe this, but the work was as important as that to China and Japan. The work was before the society in many of the mountain counties of the State. The American Bible Society expended $150,000 for printing Bibles in the languages of heathen nations, and Virginia contributed not a cent for that purpose except through a legacy left by a pious woman.

Mr. E. B. Prettyman presented the cause of the benevolent association, explaining the organization. He thought that the benefits to be paid to widows of ministers could be increased from $300 to $1,200 or $1,500.

Mr. Charles Shipley presented the report of the missionary board of the conference. The report showed that $10,026 had been paid for foreign missions, and $2,997 for domestic missions. The increase over last year in all the districts was $14.48. Baltimore district gave most for foreign missions, Washington district most for domestic missions and Washington district most for foreign and domestic missions combined. The total for foreign and domestic missions was $13,778 71.

Rev. Dr. Nelson Head presented the report of the board of education recommending the efforts to endow Randolph-Macon College; recommending the Wesleyan Female Seminary, Staunton, Valley Female College, Winchester, and Mt. Parvo Institute, Charlottesville.

At night the conference missionary anniversary was held and addresses were made by Bishop Keener and Rev. Dr. John.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

New York, Mar. 15.—The stock market opened generally firm, first prices in most stocks being from 1/2 to 3/4 per cent. above last evening's final figures. There was a moderate trading in ten or a dozen leading stocks, but the remainder were very dull. Prices were heavy from the opening. The losses in the general list ranged up to 1/2 per cent., but Richmond and West Point was decidedly weak and quickly dropped 1 1/2 per cent. The decline was checked before 10:30 and a rally followed in which the general list was brought up to the opening figures and, in a few instances, small fractions above. At 11 o'clock the market was quiet and rather heavy. Money easy at 3/4.

BALTIMORE, Mar. 15.—Virginia 6s consolidated —; post-due coupons 64; 10-40s with coupons 41; new 3s 64 1/2 bid to day.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET, March 15, 1887.—Flour is in fair demand and steady. The wheat markets are more active, especially for the best grades, which are in constant demand and readily sell at the recent advance; while futures are not materially changed, there is a healthy tone, with a good volume of business reported. Corn, Rye and Oats are strong and more active. The cold and unseasonable weather has had a tendency to advance prices of Pork, Poultry and other produce, and sales are readily made.

BALTIMORE, March 15.—Cotton nominally steady and quiet; middling 93c. Flour easier for high grades City Mills and quiet. Wheat—Southern steady and quiet; red 92c 1/2; amber 93c 1/2; No. 1 Maryland 82 1/2; Western 24c 3/4; Western dull; No. 2 winter red spot and March 85c 1/2; May 85c 1/2; June 90c 1/2. Corn—Southern quiet and easier for yellow; white 48c 1/2; yellow 46c 1/2; Western about steady and dull; mixed spot 45c 1/2; April 45c 1/2; May 46c 1/2; steamer 44c 1/2. Oats quiet and steady. Southern and Penna. 24c 3/4; Western white 37c 3/4; do mixed 34c 3/4. Rye firm at 58c 1/2. Provisions firm, with a fair inquiry. Eggs higher at 16. Whiskey steady at $1 23 1/2. Other articles unchanged.

CHICAGO, March 15.—11:00 a. m.—The boom appeared to depart from the wheat market this morning. May Wheat opened at 81 1/2, or 1/2 lower than last night, and has steadily declined to 80 1/2, with very free offerings. May Corn 40 1/4, May Oats 29, May Pork $21. May Lard $7 67 1/2.

NEW YORK, March 15.—Cotton dull; uplands 9 1/2; Orleans 10 1/2; futures steady. Flour dull and heavy. Wheat lower. Corn lower. Pork firm at $16 50. Lard dull at $6 77 1/2.

BALTIMORE HOG MARKET, March 14.—The receipts show a further falling off in numbers, with the quality about the same as last week. Trade is fairly active, and prices further advanced over the improvement recorded last Monday, and the market is firm.
